This is a hidden gem of a place in the smart food court. Great curry reasonable prices and pretty fast too. The food court does get really busy around lunch and dinner time so it's hard to seat a big group. But if you're here at off times or have a small enough group it shouldn't be a problem. The donburi bowls are pretty good too. Highly recommended read more. What User doesn't like about ZAC ZAC Japanese Curry House:

Video review on my YouTube channel: Vancity Food Crew zac zac japanese Curry House . That was my first experience with Japanese curry. I had the combo with Katsu, shrimp and corokke. I didn't really dig the taste. It was good. If a friend or a friend's parents did something and offered it to me, I could eat it again, but I won't look for it alone because I didn't care. read more. Tasty pizza is baked hot from the oven at ZAC ZAC Japanese Curry House in Vancouver using a time-honored method, The menus are usually prepared fast and fresh for you.
