What User likes about Tokyo Joe's: When in Vancouver, often stay at Wall Centre and this location makes it perfect to enjoy delicious reasonably priced fare. recommend the crispy shirmp roll and yam roll. Bento boxes also excellent. quick service. limited seating but does have small outdoor seating to enjoy as well. read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about Tokyo Joe's:

This little eatery is located just steps from St. Paul's Hospital and Wall Centre, so it attracts a considerable clientele. I have eaten there a couple of times, just after the lunch rush, and found it a nice place for a bite and a break. Prices are good, portions are fairly generous, but the quality is not exceptional. I had a chicken 'rice bowl' that was very nice, but another time the BC Roll, salmon sushi/sashimi... read more. At Tokyo Joe's from Vancouver you can savor delicious vegetarian meals, in which no animal meat or fish was used, and easily digestible Japanese meals are being made with lots of fresh vegetables, fish and meat. Not to be overlooked is also the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, and you may look forward to the scrumptious typical seafood cuisine.
