stopped in for lunch on the way to cherryville and there was room across the street for parking a fifth wheel which is a plus. The four of us had fries, popcorn shrimp, mushroom Gouda burger and the Millie burger. House made burgers and fries with the only letdown being the Caesar salad was all packaged dressings and oversaturated.

The rest of the meal was great though and we enjoyed it all. Decent price point and se... read more. For starters it's way overpriced for what you get. My husband had a terrible beef dip and I had a very skimpy grilled cheese (not even enough cheese on it to cover the bread) and the gravy I got for my French fries was like water. The service was Ok but the food sucked and they didn't seem to really care if we were there or not. We crossed that one off our list. read more.
