We both had the fisherman's bake, with local beer (Iceberg beer) and very much enjoyed the meal. The café was very busy and service was a bit slow but the good food and the great view made it worthwhile. We also very much enjoyed the museum. read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WiFi for its customers, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about The Rooms Cafe: Am from St. John's (visiting from Ottawa) and was there with family. This was our first time - and my last. Ditto on every comment Lia made above, plus had to ask 3 times for a coffee. Never going back. Will concede, however, that the view was great - but, if you want the view, it's free on the observation area on that floor - don't waste your money on the cafe: walk down the hill to Water or George streets to eat at...
