We had our Lunch here after we visited the Falls and all of us were hungry. We decided to settle for a known chain instead of exploring. To start with the place was crowded as expected. We could have some vegetarian options and the waitress went out of the way to accomodate. The portions were big and were good. There could be better options. But if you are in a hurry this is the place. read more. When the weather is good you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about Ruby Tuesday:

Expensive for what we ordered, typical chain restaurant, nothing special about it except if you eat on the balcony and watch the falls. Service was fine, they didn't like removing the PF and MDF. If you're hungry for some fiery South American culinary arts, this is the place to be: exquisite meals, cooked with fish, seafood delicacies, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, Besides the tasty sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks also make a good snack. Look forward to the enjoyment of fine vegetarian dishes, and you can indulge in delicious American meals like Burger or Barbecue.
