Lezzets is a great restaurant to have a small bite or a fill sized meal. I had a chicken and beef platter with rice and my choice of sides..It was super and all I wanted to do was chow down on some more. Staff was helpful and when the rice was done, we got half a serving of rice n half of fries. I would definitely recommend this place. Perfect family owned operation or mom n pop styled resto. . What User doesn't like about Lezzet:

We ordered and paid for the mixed shawarma X 2 but they only gave us the chicken, they are mixed up and we had to wait for them to fix the error. Portions are small and not that impressive, some of the meat was dry and burnt. I wasn't really impressed at the food. read more. A visit to Lezzet becomes even more rewarding due to the large selection of coffee and tea specialties, Typically, the meals are prepared for you in the shortest time and fresh. For those who are not yet convinced, to persuade themselves to visit the Lezzet, the smell of fresh flatbread or the delicious, sticky sweetness that fresh baklava promises might help - the Middle East is definitely closer than one imagines, Additionally, well digestible Mediterranean dishes are on the menu.
