Best bang for your buck for chinese food in my opinion. It cannot get any better for 7 dollars for rice meat drink. Don't expect a fancy restaurant with a fancy dish. It's cheaper than a Big Mac meal. read more. What User doesn't like about Song's Kitchen:

I had today the $7.95 combo-lunch special and totally agree that it is generally average in what you were separated today. It took about 15 minutes to prepare, but was hot when I got it. It was tasty because there are only two places to... in et in this food store. The atmosphere here is rustic and cautious to go down the stairs to the basement to use the washroom as the handrail is broken. Only other people eating h... read more. In Song's Kitchen from Mississauga, you can enjoy versatile, scrumptious Chinese cuisine that's traditionally prepared in a wok, and you may look forward to the tasty traditional seafood cuisine. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Song's Kitchen. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known menus too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients eat, Thai meals are prepared here with the famous spices and fish sauces.
