The food here is delicious and quite reasonably priced. Generous portions of schnitzel and spaetzle. The server is very hospitable and friendly. We were here for dinner, and would like to try some of the lunch menu, too! read more. You can use the WLAN of the restaurant at no extra cost, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Paprika House:

The food was alright. I had bakonyi marhaszelet, which translates into beef slices with bacon. It is true a beef roast cannot be prepared in 10 min, so it had to be cooked previously. The sauce could ssemed to have been pre-made. It could be fresher. I am not sure the dish was authentic, based on Google researches. Hungarian websites use pork chops in the recipe, not beef. It was good for a one-time visit. read more. The extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Paprika House even more worthwhile, the restaurant provides but also meals from the European context. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Furthermore, the magical treats of this local sparkle not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
