What User likes about Langdon Hall: This quaint and enchanting hotel was a wonderful stay. Room was equipped with every amenity including a wood burning fireplace. Linens were luxe and bed was beyond comfortable. Well appointed bathroom had every lotion and potion and item you could possibly desire. Staff were wonderful and most accommodating. Grounds are exquisite and beg for one to go exploring. The brunch in the dining room was delicious with a grea... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in pleasant weather. What User doesn't like about Langdon Hall:

Lovely staff but the meal was a disaster. We love Relais and Chateaux food, but this hotel gives them a bad name. It is such a shame that the chef thinks that it is acceptable, in 2017, to serve ridiculously small portions. The food is tasty and well presented, which is what is expected. What is not expected is the tiny portions that went out in 1985! As an example, the meal started with an Amuse Bouche, that was mor... read more. With the large range of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Langdon Hall becomes even more attractive. You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. If you want to have breakfast, a tasty brunch awaits you, the menu also includes delicious vegetarian menus.
