This small veggie restaurant inside the food-court of a Chinese building (you may call it a mall but there're not many shops) is one of the very few in the town of Calgary that offers Cantonese vegetarian dishes. There are assorted vegetarian items mainly made of tofu but tastes like beef and pork. The veggie hot-and-sour soup is fresh and nice, and the deep-fried taro roll is a must-try. Very reasonable prices. read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat outside, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Veggie House:

Went there twice. The owners were very kind peoples. We like the veggie hotpot, fried kwetiaw and 3 kind of mushrooms hotpot. Taste good, good service, good price and big portion. Will go back there next time to try another food read more. A visit to Veggie House becomes even more rewarding due to the comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, Many visitors are particularly looking forward to the versatile, flavorful Chinese cuisine. You can also look forward to scrumptious vegetarian cuisine.
