We chose to go to the crabapple after reading yelp reviews. They were very accurate. This is a small place attached to a corner store in a residential area. Lots of parking. The menu itself is small, but provides a great variety. We ordered two daily specials, a beet salad and two burgers. Each meal was well presented and tasted great. The poutine, if you have never had any, was ok. I have had poutine elsewhere, in... read more. As a customer, you can use the WLAN of the restaurant free of charge, and into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather is right, you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about The Crabapple Cafe:

We live in Squamish and have been here twice before for breakfast and it was okay - the food was average (service was not great). Had dinner there tonight and it was possibly the worst meal all of us have had in years. If you want to get sick I would definitely recommend the poutine. We would have complained while at the restaurant but of course the service was non-existent. Do not go here! read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential.

In this gastropub, you not only get delicious cuisine from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good assortment of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food. In addition, you'll find sweet delicacies, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot drinks here. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink. Likewise, the customers of the establishment prefer the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides.
