Lovely mountain restaurant right on the slopes in Whistler. This is a good coffee stop - they do delicious cinnamon buns. Or stop for lunch - the chick pea stew is amazing. It gets busy if the weather is bad or cold as it is not huge, but worth the stop once seated. This is self service and is very efficient. Good washrooms facilities too. Lots of seating outside if the sun is shining and it's a sun trap. This is a r... read more. When the weather is nice you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about Chic Pea:

But others love this place. It's almost got cult status with some. Yes they have the best cinnabuns but seriously how many of those can one person eat in a season. Chick pea stew is fine as are the other hearty stews, Mac and cheese is ordinary and I am not a pizza / calzone fan so always struggle to find something to eat. Yes it's small and therefore cosy but really not special in anyway. It would be great if the outsid... read more.
