we eat asian food everywhere we travel. The food here wasnt so bad, not the best i have ever had by a long shot, but pretty good for a ski hill town. The price wasnt bad and the service was good. read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. WiFi is available at no extra cost. What User doesn't like about Fuji Market: The decor is fab, it's like entering an eatery on a small Japanese street, like those you see in movies... the food was OK but I wouldn't say particularly good. We had their signature pork ramen, chicken donburi and overfried spring rolls and gyozu. The ramen was a little too hard. We didn't try the sushi (self serve, in the fridge). It's an interesting no frills place though, good value, thoughtful but not fancy. It... read more. In the kitchen of Fuji Market in Brandywine, original Asian spices tasty traditional meals are prepared, and healthy Japanese menus are being made with lots of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat. No matter the occasion - a ceremony - the in-house catering makes it easy to enjoy the food from Fuji Market in your own four walls, The successful fusion of different dishes with fresh and occasionally daring ingredients is highly valued by the visitors - a nice example of Asian Fusion.
