This place has fresh, local-made donuts every day from 5am-12am, 7 days a week. All too often, there's a new donut maker on the block charging $3.50 to $5.00 per mediocre donut- it feels like some of the new "artisan donut makers" are wringing out the humble donut for all of its worth. poor donuts. Take Five is worth the visit for a great variety of down-to-earth, tasty donuts made locally with love- well worth a vis... read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also have something outside, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Take Five:

Visited this place on a Sunday morning, the cafe was full of senior citizens. The coffee was very flavourful. The cinnamon twist donut was soft and fresh. The cheese in the cheese croissants was too salty. Overall, very good value. read more. A visit to Take Five becomes even more rewarding due to the large variety of coffee and tea specialties, here they serve a appetizing brunch in the morning. If you have little appetite, you can treat yourself to one of the fine sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, The original Canadian dishes are well received by the guests of the establishment.
