Food is good, freshly made and mildly spiced. The place is really small and jam-packed during dinner hours. Be prepared to wait for a chance to be seated. Once seated, you can proceed to place your order. Food is prepared quickly and consumed even faster. Visit if you are a fan of Turkish BBQ or wish to experience the "Local Culture" of Istanbul without taking a long flight. read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Turquaz Kebab House:

This is a small cafe style Lebanese restaurant. You have to order at the counter. The food is OK however way overpriced! Service is also 2 star at best, they think they are doing you a favour! read more. A visit to Turquaz Kebab House becomes even more rewarding due to the comprehensive range of coffee and tea specialties, The barbecue is freshly cooked here on an open flame. If you're still not sure, let the smell of freshly baked flatbread or the tasty, sticky temptation of fresh baklava convince you - the Middle East is quite certainly closer than you think, In addition to that, the visitors of the establishment can also enjoy typical meals from Turkey - starting from Lahmacun, over different kinds of Kebabs, to sticky-sweet desserts.
