My husband and I went out for a drink after dinner while we were downtown. We found The Wine Room and we fully enjoyed our experience. They sold wines by the ounce at $2.75 each. They also had food and bottle of wines for sale. We each tried some wines. The ambience was very tasteful and the room was lit by candlelight. They played jazz and blues music but you could still easily hear one another talk across from one... read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about The Wine Room:

The service in this place is so bad I couldn't not write a review. Manager and waiter was extremely grumpy and rude. Didn't serve us for about 30 min at least. We ordered almost $400 worth of food and wine in a matter of an hour and a half and half way through we got asked to keep it down because apparently our voices were too loud.

It is extremely pretentious and snobby. There was no help with the wine menu at all a... read more. In the joint you will find a bit of this and a bit of that, paired with their appreciated Tapas, In addition, the cocktail menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a diverse assortment of beers from the region and the whole world. In this restaurant there is also an extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties not to forget, The traditional Canadian dishes are well received by the visitors of the local.
