My husband and I decided to try Curry's for lunch based on the reviews. The restaurant has a very romantic atmosphere which we enjoyed. We had the Chicken Curry and the Tandoori Chicken, both were good, however I preferred the Tandoori Chicken. I found the chicken curry to be too saucy and not enough meat. I would like to return to Curry's for dinner sometime and try their dinner menu. read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Curry's:

I am really sorry to mention that this was my worst experience for indian food in London. We are from UK, very familiar with Indian meal. Food and service lacks. read more. Atthemoment one might start to consider maybe eating healthier; exactly for these thoughts, Curry's's menu offers a large selection of healthy dishes, delectable vegetarian meals are also on the menu available. If you'd like something sweet to finish off, Curry's does not disappoint with its good selection of desserts, With typical Indian spices, dishes are fine and freshly prepared.
