What User likes about Carey's:

We've been a few times. Wednesday Wings for $0.49 and Bar Rail for $2.75 made this an easy choice for a quick bite later in the evening. Flavours are good. I've never had Maple Bacon Wings before, and they were interesting and tasty. I prefer their regular wings, to their boneless wings. The boneless seem to be a bit dry to too much breading. Veggie Poutine wasn't to my liking, but the fries were well cooked. I will g... read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities,

Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Carey's:

Been looking for a lunchtime watering hole since getting a job in the area, being turned off by almost constant fast food. This place isn't fine dining, but the menu has a decent selection, the food is decent and the ambiance is welcoming. Plus seemed busy so must be doing something right. I'd give it a shot if you're on the east side. read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious meals from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good variety of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food. It shows that the typical Canadian menus are well received by the guests of the restaurant. If you have little appetite, you can treat yourself to one of the delicious sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack. Here, the barbecue is freshly prepared on an open flame.
