We enjoyed a fine, reasonable ($25.) 3 course lunch. Quiet setting, fine attentive service and multiple solid choices for each course. Dishes were well presented and tasty. An easy day outing from Montreal, if you are not staying over. read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, and there is complimentary WiFi. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Auberge des Gallant:

We were attending a special event, had to select our meals in advance. My wife ordered fish - was very dry - and I ordered filet mignon medium rare - was quite tough. This was also confirmed by other guests. Soup and dessert were good. When setting the tables earlier I watched a young lady wheeling in the already filled water glasses to set them on the table - they were in a plastic crate - she had to lift them out wit...
