This was a random pit stop on our way through to Drumheller and it was such a lovely place to visit. The staff was very friendly and welcoming which was a huge deal to me. The bathroom has a really nice and well organized display corner that housed fresh hand towels and anything else you may need. By the bathroom there is a shelf of toys for small children and crayons. The tables are filled with interesting magazines... read more. When the weather is good you can also eat and drink outside, and into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Jam Tarts:

Was there for lunch a month ago, had the Reuben sandwich, it was good! But the sandwich with a pickle and small plate of chips will set you back around $13. I don't know who set the prices, but it was not worth it! Good sandwich not worth it. Service was alright, and atmosphere was cozy. read more. Jam Tarts is popular for its original Canadian plates, which are prepared with products typical of the country. Furthermore, you can get sweet treats, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages here. If you want to have breakfast, a hearty brunch awaits you, among the specialties of this place are especially the Maki and Te-Maki.
