Although we reserved, this is a resto where you stand in line to order your food. Very long lineups because locals call in for takeout. By the time our turn came around about half an hour in line ,many items on the menu were no longer available. We left very hungry and very angry. This is supported to be THE place for the best seafood, but good luck trying to get some. I guess one has to reserve for five o'clock, not... read more. Poissonnerie Lauzier from Saint-Pascal is a good place for a bar to have a beer after work and be able to hang out with friends, Likewise, the visitors of the restaurant prefer the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides. The varied Canadian menus are also liked by the guests of the Poissonnerie Lauzier, and you can look forward to the tasty traditional seafood cuisine.
