Great to eat somewhere with coeliac disease and not be ill! Had the burger and while the gluten free bun did fall apart it was so tasty it didn't matter! Waitress showed good understanding of cross contamination as she explained the fries were done in the same fryer as gluten containing products and so offered a salad which was amazing and a great size! Whole of the family enjoyed their meals thank you :) read more. User doesn't like about Mill Street Brew Pub:

came here just for drinks with friends, and it took over 10 minutes to be seen by a server. After ordering our drinks, we waited another 10 minutes to quench our thirsts. We only planned on being there for a short time, but the service was so slow we overstayed our welcome. The bill came faster than anything else we asked for. read more.
