My daughter and I attended a physic brunch in their private room... club sandwich with fries was really good. There were great options on the menu at very reasonable prices. I love the old charm of the neighbourhood that this restaurant is located in. Great place to spend a Sunday afternoon. read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Cranberries Bar & Grill:

I was disappointed with my fish dinner (pan seared haddock) the portion was very small for $18.00 and I suspect may have been frozen. My partner's steak was prepared to specs (medium rare) the meat had not rested (so there was excess meat juices...on the plate). To do a menu of that size, it's not possible to keep all items fresh ie: chicken fingers were frozen as was my fish. The waitress was polite and reasonably a... read more. If you want to try fine American menus like burgers or barbecue, Cranberries Bar & Grill from Toronto is the place to be, It's worth mentioning that the original Canadian dishes are well received by the customers of the establishment. Even if you're only not so much hungry, you can still treat yourself to one of the fine sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, The visitors of the establishment also appreciate the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer.
