The Card of Sushi Zone from Toronto contains about 84 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about CA$13. What User likes about Sushi Zone:

A tiny "hole in the wall" with only ten little tables. We were impressed with both the quality of the food and the price. Very fresh and very tasty. Cheap and cheerful! Not a place to either particularly seek out or to hang around once you've eaten ~ in and out, when that's all it needs to be. But if you find yourself in the neighbourhood and hungry, a super spot. Washrooms, in need of some loving care, are rather in... read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also eat outside, and there is free WLAN. What User doesn't like about Sushi Zone:

Located at Yonge and Belsize, this place really is tiny. Food: Food portion is good, and the menu is quite extensive, but the food itself is somewhat below average. For example, the tempura is small and dry, rice is gluey, salmon is overdone and the sauce is watery, sushi is fair. Value; Not a stunner for value like sushi supreme across the street, but comparable. Overall: The people running the place seem like great... read more. With fresh ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, Sushi Zone from Toronto prepares for you delicious sushi (e.g., Maki and Te-Maki) and many additional variations, On the daily specials there are also several Asian dishes. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Sushi Zone. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known dishes too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients taste, and it's made with lots of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, healthy Japanese meals cooked.
