We are leaving Momofuku now and planning to come back before we leave Toronto. The food is so good and the service is exceptional! The presentation and the taste are out of this world. I highly recommend this restaurant for Asian food lovers. We orders the extremely spicy noodles and the chicken and BBQ buns. We also orders the coliflower and it was excellent. The sewer from the bar is heavenly. An extraordinary expe... read more. When the weather is nice you can also be served outside, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Momofuku Nikai:

This is part of the Momofuku building which includes multiple restaurants. Located on the second floor, this is the closest to a bar with food. We sampled cocktails, buns and ramen. The chicken bun was good and everything else was OK. Actually, the cocktails were somewhat disappointing - really watered down. The service was very friendly. Since this is connected to the hotel where we stayed, it would have warranted a... read more. The customers love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Momofuku Nikai from Toronto, with its unconventional Asian fusion cuisine - the perfect blend of traditional meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, Inthemorning a versatile brunch is offered here. Momofuku Nikai focuses on a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat in its healthy Japanese cuisine, It shows that the versatile Canadian meals are well received by the guests of the restaurant.
