Impromptu lunch at Atwater Market. The steam buns were very good, not quite to David Chang's standards but very good none the less. The chicken satays and sauce were very flavourful. The Green Papaya Salad had an awesome spiciness from the Thai chilis. We walked 3km to get here for lunch and did. We did not regret our decision. Creemore on tap was a huge bonus CASH ONLY THOUGH read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also eat outside, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WiFi is available for free. What User doesn't like about Satay Brothers: restaurant with a festive and noisy atmosphere. passably limited map that offers a tasteful approximate cuisine without offering anything exceptional (except for the satays that, must admit, are delicious). friendly service and good aloi. the total note that, we can no longer afford, certainly positively influence the customer's judgment as to their appreciation of the overall experience of this restaurant, read more. If you're craving some zesty South American cuisine, you've come to the right place: exquisite meals, roasted with fish, seafood, and meat, though corn, beans, and potatoes are also on the menu, On the menu there are also several Asian menus. In this restaurant there is also an large diversity of coffee and tea specialties not to forget, Moreover, one can find an good variety of different Malaysian national dishes such as Wantan, Roti, Naan and also Ayam in the menu.
