Fairly genuine Indonesian food, perhaps not the best in Montreal. Unlike the most obvious option, this restaurant is open on Mondays. Very laid back decor, almost fast-food like, but the food is clearly not fast food. Ask for sambal to add to your meal as the dishes are fairly blend. The braised beef was excellent. read more. When the weather is nice you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about Gado Gado:

After a long absence back to this resto. For decades there has been an Indian Resto at this point, but the property has changed and so has the menu. First impressions are not good. The neighborhood looks dirty and runs down. The restaurant entrance is...filthy. Service is friendly, but it does not seem to be enough staff. They serve South Indian food, so don't expect beef. Food is usually quite delicious, but seems r... read more. If you want to spoil your palate with a bit of culinary flair, this is the place to be: The imaginative Asian fusion cuisine of the Gado Gado from Montréal - a delicious combination of proven and the unexpected, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes. In this restaurant there is also an comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties not to forget, and you may look forward to the scrumptious typical seafood cuisine.
