We eat here on every visit to Montreal (at least twice a year.) The menu is nearly identical to La Strega (where we ate for years until it closed.) We understand it is the same owner as years ago. The fresh pastas are cooked to perfection. The sauces are out of this world. I love the selection of rose sauces. We nearly always order a pasta with salad so we can finish every forkful. Their wine selection is excellent.... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Toro Rosso:

There seems to be a lot of changes in the Village lately- this place is constant. Nice interior. The food is average. The salad was really awful (wet runny iceberg lettuce,) the pasta was okay. Priced well and great service. I would go back but hesitate to recommend to people with high standards. read more. If you want to a beer after work and sit with friends or alone, Toro Rosso from Montréal is a good bar, and you can look forward to authentic Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. Look forward to the enjoyment of scrumptious vegetarian menus, Don't miss the chance to enjoy the tasty pizza, prepared straight out from the oven in an traditional way.
