I live in the area and have eaten here several times. It is delicious and fresh. The lunch special is so large that you could possibly have left overs! Servers have been attentive any time we go. I would recommend this place for sure. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, and there is complimentary WLAN. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Busaba:

My partner and I savour our opportunities to eat at good restaurants when we visited Canada. Thai food in particular. When we heard there was one in Nelson we were excited and presumed it would be good. But, we were very disappointed. The vegetables were all overcooked, the spicing mediocre and the service slow. Not much to like read more. Busaba from Nelson cooks delicious dishes with the Thai culinary famous spices and (fish-)sauces, along with loads of fresh vegetables, seafood and meat, Furthermore, the customers love the creative combination of different dishes with new and partially experimental products - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion. It should not be forgotten that there is a large diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, there are also delectable vegetarian recipes in the menu.
