The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Shogun:

The food was good, chef put on a good show but this place could use a serious cleanup. The leaking ac was not working as everyone sweat in the restaurant, and the tub underneath it attempting to collect the running water from the dirty unit left something to be desired. Also the floors are so dirty with grease that you could skate all over the restaurant if you wanted. I think a good cleaning and a little facelift co...
