What User likes about Restaurant Village Oriental: small restaurant which you must absolutely book for dinner and it is worth it. the menu is varied and very good; The chief puts his heart on it. the price also is not high. The only 'hic' is that the waitress (probably the proprio) has difficulty getting understood; no French, her very bad English, and she screams often, but, don't worry, it's just because of the language; It's a bring your wine, it's the funet as I...
