We stopped here for a light lunch and had soup and fresh bread with tea/coffee and a pastry. The soup de jour was a homemade veggie soup, a pureed style, which was quite nice. The bread was a baguette, freshly made, sliced. The pastries were fresh and delicious. There are only a few tables to sit but there was room for 2. A choice of sandwiches is also available. Menu is small, but for a coffee and cake or a light sa... read more.
