nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Thai's Saigon Bistro: The portion sizes are large compensating for the lack of quality food. Greasy, salty and lacking flavour. Chicken pieces were chewy with a lot of skin contributing to greasiness. More of food that you would receive at home than a restaurant. read more. Admirable is this small yet fine Bistro, not only for its ambiance, but also for its range of typical, delicate meals usually at reasonable prices, meals from Thailand are prepared here with the popular spices and (fish-) sauces. It's precisely the freshness and lightness paired with the original Vietnamese spices that not only brings delicious meals to the table, but also puts the visitors into a pleasant holiday feeling temporarily. The guests of the establishment are also thrilled with the comprehensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers.
