I took my father-in law for lunch at Take. He likes to go here at least once every two weeks. This was my first time. Sushi is as good as any sushi in Vancouver. It is run by a Chinese family; most sushi places in lower mainland are run by Chinese. I thought the prices were noticeably cheaper for what you get. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Take Sushi:

I don't recommend this restaurant to anyone, it is not traditional Japanese restaurant. Their sushi not fresh and it still have ice on their sashimi. Hygiene even more worse! read more. In the kitchen of Take Sushi in Burnaby, traditional dishes are prepared with original Asian spices scrumptious, The visitors of the restaurant also consider the extensive selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Take Sushi. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known menus too ordinary can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients taste, Especially delicious are also the Sushi and specialties like Te-Maki from this place.
