What User likes about Thrums Market: We stopped at this cute little mountain chalet-style business to see what was in stock in the way of prepared Russian food. I did not see any that made my mouth water. But, they had quart & pint sealers of buckwheat honey & other local honeys. I could not resist buying a jar of buckwheat honey. I have tasted it since I came home & can testify that it is delicious. My husband ordered a coffee which was excellent in qu... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. WLAN is available for free. What User doesn't like about Thrums Market:

Nothing great. Borscht is quite different. I think the carrots use instead of beets. Taste is okay, but not what I expected. The Pyrahi are in order and type of a filled pastry sandwich. Cheese and potato are best. The bean was like a meat substitute. Nice colleague. Very limited menu. Friendly counter service. read more. In Thrums Market in Castlegar, they prepare crispy pizza using a time-honored method, served fresh. And of course, you should also try the fine burgers, with sides such as fries, salads, or wedges served. You can just get one of the delicious sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, if you're not that ravenous. In addition, the latest games or races can be watched on the big screen in this sports bar, which the customers also love.
