This restaurant was recommended to us and it was exceptional from the wait staff, the food, and the atmosphere. True Home cooked meals, and lots of it. I had the pork Schnitzel, with a medley of rice and vegetables. It started with a soup of the day and sour dough bread for 14.99. Delicious! read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about New Sarum Family Restaurant:

I guess I expected something more amazing with this place. The food was good but nothing more than what other average diners or roadhouses offer. It's definitely a senior's paradise and our group probably made it less enjoyable for a few since the four of us were a bit boisterous than desired. The server was okay. The milkshakes were good, but expensive for not being "great." All four of us felt the meals were fine,... read more.
