We eat at a Montana's about 4x/year. The one in Guelph is good, the one in Milton (James Snow Pkwy), is excellent. This one on the edge of Markham, is the poorest one we have visited. Our visit was on a Sunday; no lunch deals, no soup of the day. After seating, were ignored for a good 15 minutes. Other than appetizers, all other meal offerings were too large and too pricey for a lighter lunch. What we did order was g... read more.
