Very popular with groups of young people which appears to obligate management to impose a number of restrictions on the all you can eat BBQ concept. As a grown up, this made for a hectic rush to cook and order cook and order cook and order to ensure the family did not go hungry. The meats were of a decent standard and the kitchen-prepared bi bim bap and soba were good as well, but I wouldn't say the cuisine justifies... read more.

Lovers of Korean cuisine are right at home here: The range includes Kimchi, a variety of diverse variations of Bap, alongside a multitude of delightful Jjigae that enchant the taste buds, Here, the barbecue is freshly grilled on an open flame. In addition, they serve you flavorful seafood meals, and it's made with lots of fresh vegetables, fish and meat, easily digestible Japanese dishes prepared.
