What User likes about Le Muscadin: This place is more well known to locals than tourists so I feel fortunate to have discovered. The menu is excellent and wine selection tremendous. Service was some of the best I have experienced. The owner is a passionate Italian wine lover and can offer great information and background to the wines he personally imports. This is apparently a new location for a longstanding place. Ambience is quiet. A bit more pricey but... read more.
