We were referred to Bistro by our B&B owner and it was a perfect night. We sat outside and enjoyed the game of trying to pin down the menu on our waiter's iPad (whatever) which kept floating away from us. Finally we had a superb meal. David, our waiter, was great. Discovered a gin from Quebec that we liked a lot (Ungava). This place looked like the best of several restaurants on the same street. Very enjoyable. read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also eat and drink outside, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WiFi is available at no extra cost. What User doesn't like about Bistro D: This has 5-7 selections for entree and about the same for main dishes. Service is slow however the servers are very nice. I ordered the veal scallop, however they made their own version what they called veal scallop. I found they put lots of cheese which makes the meal very heavy. I have to take antacid because of the burning sensation. I looked at people faces around me when they received their bill and how surprised... read more.
