In Charlottetown, slightly off the beaten path, is this remarkable little café serving home-cooked meals and stupendous desserts - all with a smile. We drive in from Summerside to shop regularly, and always try to stop in to encourage the owner (who is delightful and a new immigrant) and to just appreciate the peace and quiet with her home style cuisine. There are only a few tables here and so sometimes you may have... read more. As a guest, you can use the WLAN of the establishment free of charge, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. If the weather conditions are right, you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Living Grace Cafe:

Undercooked potatoes, photocopied, tasteless bacon and ultra sweet beans...but the toast and eggs were good so they each get a big ol' star. We didn't enjoy that at all. We wish you all the best though? read more. The Living Grace Cafe originating from Charlottetown serves various flavorful seafood courses, Furthermore, you can get sweet treats, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages here. If you'd like something sweet for dessert, Living Grace Cafe does not disappoint with its extensive selection of desserts, there are also fine vegetarian recipes in the menu.
