This is the dining room of the Culinary Institute at Holland College. The staff are second-year students, supervised by faculty. The setting is fantastic, overlooking the harbor through large windows. The service is impeccable. The food is excellent. Probably the best restaurant in town. Currently being renovated, but put it on your list for November. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Lucy Maud Dining Room:

That was my third time in this restaurant. That was my 6th restaurant I visited in 10 days. Lunch. The dining room was nice and the server was pleasant. I had the pumpkin and fennel soup; it was good, but not even warm.... My main dish was scallop and pig bell, was not warm again, I like my food hot. I had carrot cake and it was okay. My friend had Lobster Macaroni, she said it was good, but not hot. Her dessert was... read more.
