We wanted something other than seafood and this restaurant satisfied this craving. Small restaurant. Only one hostess/server. Food was delicious. The pasta was freshly made daily - which was a big difference in terms of taste and quality. We would definitely dine here again. read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Buono Mangia:

Quite a small place (dozen tables.?) Husband (cook) and wife (server) operation. Service can be a bit slow but with only a few tables, never that bad. Pizza not that good but basic Italian entrees (using home made pasta) are better than average. Modest, reasonable wine list. Minimal noise level - conversation friendly. Understand that they were losing their lease in the Fall of 2016 and not sure where or if they would... read more.
