We looked at the menu board, but found it easiest to tell the hostess/waitress/chef what we wanted and let her guide us. The 'combination plates' are actually just half orders. I got a half order of perogies (cheddar potato - delicious) and a side of borscht (really delicious, and I don't even like borscht,) which was PLENTY of food for a meal. But, I managed to squeeze in a generous piece of walnut torte, too. My co... read more. When the weather is nice you can also be served outside, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Ukrainian Restaurant:

The homemade food was good, but I didnt care as much for the perogi's. The owner waits on you and cooks the food so You can imagine the service was not quick at all This is a place where you have to Not be in...a hurry. read more. A visit to Ukrainian Restaurant is particularly valuable due to the large diversity of coffee and tea specialties, the restaurant offers however also menus typical for Europe. If you'd like something after-dinner treat for dessert, Ukrainian Restaurant does not disappoint with its extensive selection of desserts, In addition, you'll find sweet delicacies, cake, simple snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages here.
