Worth the ferry ride from Old Quebec over to the Lévis side of the river. Bonte Divine is inside an old building but totally refurbished with a really nice interior and street side seating. You can watch the river traffic. Easy access to the cycling and walking trail on the south side of the St Lawrence. Excellent coffee in this up and coming little neighborhood of art galleries and shops. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather. What User doesn't like about Cafe Bonte Divine:

We took the ferry out of Quebec City to Lévis. It was nice to find a cute little coffee shop on the other side. We had hot chocolate but there are a variety of coffees and small snacks from which to choose. It is surprising that there aren't more attractions or vendors in the immediate vicinity for ferry customers. read more. The diverse Canadian meals from Cafe Bonte Divine, prepared with products from the country, are popular, the menu also includes fine vegetarian dishes. If you decide to come for breakfast, you are offered a tasty brunch, Also, the visitors of the establishment love the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer.
