Didn't partake in the gelato this time around, just did the mini golf. Staff was friendly, and the course wasn't too busy even though it was a long weekend, we were able to get our group of seven through without holding too many people up. The course has had some TLC put into it recently, it was clean and in good shape. Only a couple of spots that needed fixing - cup with a rim, some small parts of the greens peeling... read more. We have been to both this location of Gerry's Gelati and the one in Invermere every summer for the past few years. We went last week and played mini-golf and then enjoyed ice cream cones. We were very happy with the selection and scoop size. We went again on Tuesday evening this week (Aug. 23) for ice cream. First of all the selection was less than usual, numerous tubs were empty. We were extremely disappointed with... read more.
