Don't let the name fool you: There is nothing Austrian or Viennese about this place - certainly not the pastry selection (my wife is ethnic Austrian and knows her culinary heritage). Prices are, as with everything else in Sooke, pretty elevated. The fresh bread is the best deal. May be expensive but it is fairly big and substantial. Great white bread. read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink.

WiFi is available without additional charges. What User doesn't like about Little Vienna Bakery Cafe & Marketplace:

Bread good. Sandwiches, not so. Ordered and waited a really long time for the food to appear, and when it did it was on the thin side, with very little between the slices of bread. More like a snack than a meal. If you're hungry, suggest you eat elsewhere. read more. At Little Vienna Bakery Cafe & Marketplace from Sooke they serve various exquisite French dishes, meals from Thailand are prepared here with the popular spices and (fish-) sauces. Of course, we must not forget the extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, Forbreakfast a hearty brunch is offered here.
