Lovely family owned business of a cute lunch bistro cafe that serves soups, salads, sandwich, wraps, paninis and desserts/baked goods; and a variety of coffees and speciality coffee. Our family went here for a nice lunch and all together we ordered a good variety of soup (borscht) salad (strawberry spinach) and tika masala paninis. I also had the raspberry white chocolate mocha which was pretty and delicious! Definite... read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Cafe Zesta:

I ordered a small spinach salad which sounded quite good on the menu and I got the impression would be quite tasty given the busy-ness of the restaurant. It was ok, but at $11 for a small plate of salad (it was really small)! I could have gone to McDonald's for something similar and would have gotten more value for my money. I also didn't find the atmosphere particularly welcoming. The ladies who own it look like ret... read more.
