Ume was a big surprise when my fiancée and I first went. The decor is nothing special at all, but that is probably the only thing that isn't tops. The food is delightfully presented and tastes just as good. You are offered a fair amount of choice in terms of rolls and there are plenty of appetizers to satisfy just about anyone's tastes. As the proprietors are Korean, they make a mean Kalbi dish as well, in addition to... read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Ume Sushi:

Some of the fish looked like it had been cut hours before we were there. There was something 'just not right' about the sticky rice. We were in one of their private booths which was nice for conversation but there were very long periods, especially after the main course was served when no one came by to see how it was going. The pricing was very reasonable. Their "boat" had 36 pieces for $ 35. Some of the cuts were a bit u... read more.
