My family decided to go here since it was close to our hotel. We were pleasantly surprised with how good the food was considering the price. Since the restaurant is part of another restaurant called "Fred's Not Here" finding the restaurant may be a little confusing along with the layout inside. All together it was a very good experience. Tomato Pizza Pasta Wine Bar:

Ordered Jalepeno Linguine Chicken - the chicken that was served in this dish was at least a day old if not older - it was hard and chewy, when we mentioned this to the waiter he apologized but did not ask if we wanted a new or different plate. Not acceptable in an upscale restaurant. On the upside the flavor of the sauce was good on the linguine and the ceasar salad I ordered was ok. Would not recommend, there are mu... read more.
